

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

SCIENCE BENCH BOOK FOR JUDGES

The National Judicial College (NJC) and the Justice Speakers Institute, LLC. (JSI) are grateful to the State Justice Institute for the support that made this publication possible.

NJC and JSI also wish to express sincere gratitude to the authors who gave of their time and experience to form the foundation of this publication and to John Sriro for his assistance on Cyber Evidence. Without their willingness to share their knowledge, this project would not have been possible. The views expressed in each chapter are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the NJC or JSI.

Finally, we thank several members of NJC's staff who supported the project, including Joy Lyngar, provost, and Sheena Britschgi Evans, technology manager. In particular, we'd like to acknowledge the work of recently retired NJC Course Administrator, Crystal Noel, who provided administrative support for the project, and kept us organized.

This document was developed under grant number SJI-18-T-040 from the State Justice Institute. The points of view expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the State Justice Institute.
